Dear Sisters and Brothers,

So many of us miss Fr. Jim. So I figured I'd give you a brief update on him. He is doing well, but still trying to adjust to his new status as a retired person. Last Sunday, Bishop Robert McElroy hosted a dinner at his residence in honor of Fr. Jim's retirement. There were only seven of us priests – "the chosen ones" - invited to the dinner. We had a wonderful and blessed time together. Bishop McElroy gave the highest compliments to Fr. Jim for his exemplary service as a priest of our Diocese for almost 50 years.

Let us continue to pray for Fr. Jim's smooth transition into retirement. I am looking forward to him celebrating Masses again here at St. Martin beginning January of next year.

May God bless Fr. Jim and us all!

Peace in Christ,
 Fr. Chris

"LOOSE CHANGE" COLLECTION NEXT WEEKEND

August donations will be sent to Casa de los Pobres, an urban relief center which offers food, medical care, clothing, and educational aid to the very poor in Tijuana.

Casa de los Pobres, (House of the Poor), is staffed by Franciscan missionary sisters who are dedicated to catechesis and serving the impoverished. While the regular volunteer team consists solely of Tijuana residents, the sisters' work depends heavily on donations from the U.S.

Contributions, in any amount, for Casa de Los Pobres are appreciated. Collection boxes are at each door of the church. Your loose change can make an important difference for those in need.
