15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The seeds that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest.
(Ps 65).

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

“We cannot find God in noise or agitation. Within nature: trees, flowers and grass grow in silence. The stars, the moon, and the sun move in silence... In silence, He listens to us; in silence He speaks to our souls. In silence we are granted the privilege of listening to His voice. Silence of our eyes. Silence of our ears. Silence of our minds... In the silence of the heart, God will speak.” Saint Mother Theresa of Calcutta.

The Children’s Chapel is open Monday to Friday, from 10am to 3pm, for personal prayer and meditation before the Blessed Sacrament in the Tabernacle. Also, we will continue to gather in the Church every Friday from 7pm to closing with benediction at 830pm.

Everyone is invited and welcome to stay as long as time allows.

THE YEAR OF EUCHARIST REVIVAL

The National Eucharistic Revival, which began in 2022, is a momentous, three-year initiative that will bear fruit for years to come. This past Year of Diocesan Revival, clergy and diocesan leaders built the foundation for this movement to thrive at the parish level.

In addition, this first year of the Revival invited diocesan staff, bishops, and priests to respond to the Lord’s personal invitation and equipped them to share and to know Jesus’ presence in the eucharist through congresses and events.

Now in this second year we focus on Eucharistic Revival in the Parish. In this next stage, Tim Glemkowski, Executive director of the National Eucharistic Congress and member of the Eucharist Revival and Eucharist Team, invites parishes to discern how to recommit to celebrating the liturgy in a way that helps parishioners encounter Jesus in a personal way.

The Church in the U.S. is in desperate need of this revival and an outpouring of the Holy Spirit. When the Holy Spirit first descended upon the Apostles at Pentecost, three thousand people responded by repenting and asking, “What shall we do?” (Acts 2:37) We are invited to partake in the Eucharist- Jesus’ Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity – and understand why it is the source and summit of our faith.

2023 "LIVING OUR FAITH"
ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

Saint Martin of Tours Parish is pleased to participate in the 2023 "Living our Faith" Annual Catholic Appeal. This appeal supports charitable needs throughout the Diocese of San Diego. Your gifts make possible the work that impacts so many in our Diocese: Assistance for Catholic Education, Formation of new priests, Care of Retired Priests and Assistance for Catholic Charities. You can make your contribution on line at: giving.sdatholic.org or by filling out the brochure cards that were mailed to your residence.

Our Response as Stewards:

REFLECT: on the many gifts you have received from God, including your financial blessings.

PRAY: about how God wants you to use the gifts He has given you.

RESPONSE: by supporting the mission.

You give at your parish or online at giving.sdatholic.org.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

It's not uncommon to hear people complain that we Catholics often fall in communicating our faith. Fair enough, we can and should improve there. But it's interesting to notice that Jesus himself was implicitly accused by his disciples of a similar failure. This week in Matthew's gospel they are perplexed that he speaks to the crowds in ambiguous parables. The Lord's riddles leave many people more confused than before. He responds by pointing out that his parables have an intentional dual purpose: to hide (for some) and to reveal (for others) his Gospel: "Because knowledge of the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven has been granted to you, but to them it has not been granted" (Matthew 13:11). Is Jesus being unnecessarily difficult. Obscurantist, or, worse, elitist?

No. We have to remember that all the treasure of wisdom and knowledge lie hidden in him (c.f., Col 2:3). He is the Word of God from heaven to be planted in the earth of our humanity to bear great fruit. However, like a lover delicately pursuing his beloved, we are dealing with a relationship, not new date. When we aren't willing to personally accept Jesus into our lives, the "info" of the Gospel will simply not make sense to us. It'll seem bizarre, esoteric, or like incoherent religious-speak. But when we are willing to accept Jesus into our lives, everything else starts to make sense. When others don't understand the Church of the Lord, let's be patient. Love is patient. Sometimes it has to hide before it is revealed.

-Fr. John Muir

Saint of the week

Saint José Luis Sánchez del Río was a 14-year-old boy when he was put to death by Mexican government officials trying to eliminate religious freedom locally. Despite continuous public torture and his eventual murder, he refused to ever renounce his Catholic faith.

Prayer

Dear Lord,

Help me to be courageous and steadfast in my devotion to You. Help me to identify causes and injustices in my day that are worth defending and standing up for. Give me perseverance and a desire to help others at any cost. Help me to revere Christ as the king of my life.

Saint José Sánchez del Río, pray for us.
Amen.

Animal Critters – Summer Camp at SMA

Student campers learned about several animals that are in the care of Critter Encounters. Critter Encounters works with Project Wildlife and cares for birds and animals that will never be able to live in the wild. The Horned Owl named Forest, fell out of his nest at one week old, broke a leg and had a head injury. At a remarkable two years old, is fed by hand daily. The students learned that owl eyes are “frozen” and that is why an owl turns his head 270 degrees (not all the way around) because an owl does not have muscles to move their eyes. Forest intensely observed the campers as he was placed in the middle of the classroom.

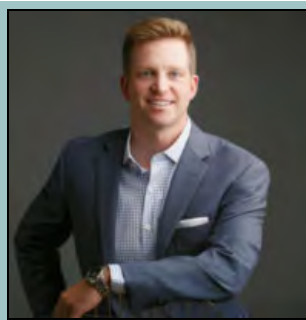

Campers learned the stories about how these injured mammals ended up at Animal Encounters: Remy the raccoon, Finley, a desert white fox, Fufus the chinchilla and Poppy the opossum!

Call the school office if you are interested in enrollment for the 23-24 school year at 619-466-3241 or email: info51@stmartinacademy.org. There are openings in a few grades.
