ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

"We cannot find God in noise or agitation. Within nature: trees, flowers and grass grow in silence. The stars, the moon, and the sun move in silence... In silence, He listens to us; in silence He speaks to our souls. In silence we are granted the privilege of listening to His voice. Silence of our eyes. Silence of our ears. Silence of our minds... In the silence of the heart, God will speak." Saint Mother Theresa of Calcutta.

The Children's Chapel is open Monday to Friday, from 10am to 3pm, for personal prayer and meditation before the Blessed Sacrament in the Tabernacle. Also, we will continue to gather in the Church every Friday from 7pm to closing with benediction at 830pm.

Everyone is invited and welcome to stay as long as time allows.

THE YEAR OF EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

The Homily

After the Gospel reading is done, the deacon, priest, or bishop then says a homily. From its greek origins, "Homily" means "explanation." Sometimes we use the terms "homily" and "sermon" interchangeably, but the Church opts for the term "homily." Why is that? Is there a difference?

Sermons usually denote a speech about a religious topic delivered apart from the sacred liturgy. This can be done with a varying amount of religious topics that don't pertain specifically to the readings heard at mass.

The homily, may at times be less formal, but a definitive part of the liturgy. The ordained minister's task is to take such readings from the liturgy of the word and open up the mystery of God's work in our lives so that the faithful can understand God's message for them in their lives today and give them spiritual nourishment so that they can in turn be ready to receive the Eucharist and live out the message of God's redemption and salvation in their everyday lives.

I hope the homily is a steady place for you to find God's teachings and movements in your life so that you can live the Gospel well.
