ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

"We cannot find God in noise or agitation. Within nature: trees, flowers and grass grow in silence. The stars, the moon, and the sun move in silence... In silence, He listens to us; in silence He speaks to our souls. In silence we are granted the privilege of listening to His voice. Silence of our eyes. Silence of our ears. Silence of our minds... In the silence of the heart, God will speak." Saint Mother Theresa of Calcutta.

The Children's Chapel is open Monday to Friday, from 10am to 3pm, for personal prayer and meditation before the Blessed Sacrament in the Tabernacle. Also, we will continue to gather in the Church every Friday from 7pm to closing with benediction at 830pm.

Everyone is invited and welcome to stay as long as time allows.

THE YEAR OF EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

A Deeper look at the Homily

When thinking of the Homily, have we ever thought about it as a bridge? The Homily helps to bridge the liturgy of the Word and the liturgy of the Eucharist. The key thing here, as every Mass, is that each part is not unconnected parts but flow together as a fuller revelation of who God is, and what Jesus did for our salvation in which we give thanks.

If anyone remembers the story of the road to Emmaus (Luke 24:13-35) One may remember the Lord speaking on the scriptures and breaking the bread. With these two things, the two disciples said as Jesus vanished from their sight: "Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?" What this meant for them is they truly heard the Good News- That the Lord is Risen!

In the clergy breaking open the Word in the mass- trying to keep their own words rich of the Good News and nourishing the congregation appropriately- I hope it helps you to know God, ourselves and our faith even more, and that it prepares you to unite with Him in body and soul, whom we know is present in the Most Holy Eucharist.

JOURNEY TO OUR GOD

In our celebration of the Epiphany, two interwoven themes are present in the readings today, God is beginning something new, and God gathers all of humanity to participate. For Isaiah, God's bright light, manifested in the people of Israel, attracts and summons people from many nations to Jerusalem. In the letter to the Ephesians, God's grace makes the Gentiles co-heirs and co-partners in the gospel. Matthew tells the story of the fulfillment of God's promises to Israel through the birth of Jesus, and simultaneously leading foreigners to share in these same promises. With the birth of Jesus, God chose a particular people, in a particular time and place, to enter most directly into the human story. Today's readings teach that God did this in order to gather all people, all cultures, into unity with God. Like the magi, we are drawn into a journey toward God, becoming co-partners in God's work.

Let Perpetual Light Shine Upon Them O Lord . . .

There is so much to do while still dealing with the emotions that come when someone dies. Often you don't even know where to start.

By virtue of one's baptism, a Catholic is eligible for the funeral rites of the Church. While the Church recommends that the pious custom of burying the bodies of the dead be observed, cremation is permitted as long as it is in line with Catholic teaching.

The cremains should be treated with the same respect given to the body of the deceased and should be entombed or buried. The scattering of cremains on the ground or at sea, of keeping any portion of them for personal reasons is not the reverent final disposition that the Church directs.

When death happens, please notify the Church office so we may assist you with next steps. You can also make pre-arrangements for your funeral mass, a gift to your grieving loved ones feeling the "pressure" to do things exactly how you would've liked things to go and just not knowing for sure. If you would like additional information to plan a Funeral or Memorial Mass, or you would like to be part of the Bereavement Ministry...

Prayer for the New Year

Dear Lord,

With thanksgiving we entrust our year to You: whatever it holds, whoever we encounter, wherever we traverse. What You supply is gift. May our comings and goings be aligned with Your will. Amen.

He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor cry, nor pain anymore for the former things have passed away. - Revelations 21:2

Let us continue to pray for the souls of our dearly departed parishioners and their families . . .
