ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

"We cannot find God in noise or agitation. Within nature: trees, flowers and grass grow in silence. The stars, the moon, and the sun move in silence... In silence, He listens to us; in silence He speaks to our souls. In silence we are granted the privilege of listening to His voice. Silence of our eyes. Silence of our ears. Silence of our minds... In the silence of the heart, God will speak."

Saint Mother Theresa of Calcutta.

The Children's Chapel is open Monday to Friday, from 10am to 3pm, for personal prayer and meditation before the Blessed Sacrament in the Tabernacle. Also, we will continue to gather in the Church every Friday from 7pm to closing with benediction at 830pm.

Everyone is invited and welcome to stay as long as time allows.

(Ps 25) Second Reading: It is not a removal of dirt from the body but an appeal to God for a clear conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ. (1 Pt 3:21) Gospel: He was among wild beasts, and the angels ministered to him. (Mk 1:13) Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. THE YEAR OF EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

The Offertory

As the altar is being prepared with everything mentioned last week, the congregation also prepare for the offertory. Many people may simply associate this with taking out our wallets for checkbooks to make our monetary donations, but this is also an important moment for us to ready ourselves for the offering which is about to take place on the altar. If one pays attention to the music during this time, one may notice that it hopefully leads our hearts to be ready to offer. In earlier times, people would not only bring up the gifts needed for the mass, but also for the priest to provide for him and also to distribute the remainder for the poor.

Now as we bring up the gifts, the bread and wine and water and monetary donations are brought up by members of the faithful. These people serve as representatives of all the faithful, who bring up their offerings to God.

As we think of the material gifts that we give to help support upkeep our church and donations to be made for those in need, let us also take this moment within the mass to make a spiritual offering in our hearts. I invite you to say, "Jesus, along with you, I offer everything, my whole heart to God. I tie my offering with the perfect offering you make for us, Jesus. Amen"

*"Rend your hearts and not your garments. Return to the Lord." (Joel 2: 13)SAINT MARTIN'S BIBLE STUDY GROUPS

All are invited to join us as we start our next topic, Scripture and the Rosary, beginning February 17 and 22. The rosary has long held a central place in the prayer lives of Catholics. At the heart of this popular form of prayer is an invitation to focus our minds and hearts on the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, Son of God and Son of Mary. Through an illuminating analysis of all the relevant biblical texts, Scripture and the Rosary provides a trustworthy guide for deepening our understanding and appreciation of key events in the lives of Jesus and Mary, reflected in each set of mysteries: Joyful, Luminous, Sorrowful, and Glorious.

So, instead of giving up chocolates this year, you are invited to join one of our amazing Bible Study groups and make this your best Lenten Season ever!

Art around the Campus

SMA has been fortunate to have two art teachers on campus for the past several years. The primary art teacher, Anna Isabella works in grades K-5 and Rosalie Covey, 6-8. Students receive a minimum of 45 minutes of fine art during the school week.

Students in junior high utilize a sketchbook as a tool for experimenting with various techniques, mediums and for exploring various ideas. Charcoal pencils, soft and oil pastels, watercolors, acrylic paint, fiber arts are just a few of the different mediums.

This month, 6th grade self portraits are displayed in the lobby of SchoolsFirst Credit Union in Mission Valley.

Oil Pastel and Water Color display in school courtyard.
