ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

"We cannot find God in noise or agitation. Within nature: trees, flowers and grass grow in silence. The stars, the moon, and the sun move in silence... In silence, He listens to us; in silence He speaks to our souls. In silence we are granted the privilege of listening to His voice. Silence of our eyes. Silence of our ears. Silence of our minds... In the silence of the heart, God will speak."

Saint Mother Theresa of Calcutta.

The Children's Chapel is open Monday to Friday, from 10am to 3pm, for personal prayer and meditation before the Blessed Sacrament in the Tabernacle. Also, we will continue to gather in the Church every Friday from 7pm to closing with benediction at 830pm.

Everyone is invited and welcome to stay as long as time allows.

SUNDAY READINGS

You shall not have other gods besides me." (Ex 20:1-3). Psalm: Lord, you have the words of everlasting life. (Ps 19). Second Reading: We proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are called, Jews and Greeks alike, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. (1 Cor 1:23-24). Gospel: Jesus answered and said to them, "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up." (Jn 2:19). Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. ### THE YEAR OF EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

Bread and Wine

In the last article, we spoke about the words of thanks that we give for the bread and wine that is brought up to the altar. But does it have to be bread and wine? Of course we know that during the Last Supper, Jesus used these gifts to be transformed to the Body and Blood of Christ, but if we were in a place where bread or wine was scarce? Would it be possible to use rice and grape juice, for instance? Plainly said, the Catholic Church never felt authorized to modify what it received from the Lord himself, for it to solely be bread and wine. In fact, when missionaries went to new places, they often brought wheat and grape seedlings to be grown locally.

Does the bread have to be unleavened? This is done to keep in mind the bread which Jesus used, which would have been unleavened bread during the Passover ritual, made only of flour and water. One might be interested in knowing that in the early Latin Church as well as currently in Eastern Rite Catholic and Eastern Orthodox Churches leavened bread is used for the Eucharist.

The wine must be natural, made from grapes of the vine, and not corrupt (meaning that it has soured or become vinegar). We thank God for these gifts which may seem so commonplace, but will truly become our spiritual nourishment within the Mass.

SAINT MARTIN'S BIBLE STUDY GROUPS

All are invited to join us as we start our next topic, Scripture and the Rosary, beginning February 17 and 22. The rosary has long held a central place in the prayer lives of Catholics. At the heart of this popular form of prayer is an invitation to focus our minds and hearts on the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, Son of God and Son of Mary. Through an illuminating analysis of all the relevant biblical texts, Scripture and the Rosary provides a trustworthy guide for deepening our understanding and appreciation of key events in the lives of Jesus and Mary, reflected in each set of mysteries: Joyful, Luminous, Sorrowful, and Glorious.

So, instead of giving up chocolates this year, you are invited to join one of our amazing Bible Study groups and make this your best Lenten Season ever!

Saturday in person in Parish Hall from 9:30am to 11am.
Thursday via Zoom from 6:30pm to 8:00pm
