GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION:

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land, where they are now less than 2% of the population. Your support is essential to help the church minister in parishes, provide to catholic schools, and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines of Christianity, including in Jerusalem, Nazareth, and Bethlehem, to name only a few. In this times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection is necessary to meet the basic needs of the People of God still living in this Land and to maintain a Christian presence where the Church was born. When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land. Please be generous.

THE YEAR OF EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

Eucharistic Revival: Incense

One may notice that at big occasions that happen at the church, as we continue going through the Offertory of the Mass, we have reached the point where incense is sometimes used. We are usually familiar with the common frankincense that we hear about as a gift given by one of the magi to Jesus.

Through incense, we may be also recall that in the psalms one can liken our prayers like the smoke of the incense, as our prayers rise to heaven.

Incense is made reference in the bible through the Book of Numbers (Num 7:14) all the way to Revelation (Rev. 8:3-4) and we find it always in the context of sacrifice and prayer. During the mass, we use it to show reverence to people and things.

The next time that we use incense at the mass, one may notice that the priest incenses the gifts, the cross, and the altar, to show that the Church's offering and prayer are rising up like prayer towards God. Then the priest is incensed because of his sacred ministry. Finally, the people are asked to stand, and they are incensed as well as the people offer themselves in their prayerful sacrifice.

The incense at this moment unites the altar of sacrifice with those offering the sacrifice and those uniting themselves to the sacrifice.

The next time we see incense, may it call to mind the offering of ourselves and the reverence we give to holy things and people within the Church.
