4TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

"I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I will lay down my life for the sheep." - Jn 10:14-15

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

CLPI

WELCOME!

We warmly welcome all visitors to our parish, the heart of our Catholic faith-life in La Mesa since 1921. Thank you for joining us for Divine Worship. We hope you will find ways to participate in and support our parish life and mission by sharing your time, talent and treasure.

If you have been coming here but are not registered or if you just moved into the area, we invite you to join us as a member of our parish family, using the registration form below or stopping by the Parish Office. Your registration makes it possible for us to communicate with you and to plan and provide for your needs more effectively, especially Baptism or Marriage, as well as eligibility to serve as godparents or sponsors.

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

"We cannot find God in noise or agitation. Within nature: trees, flowers and grass grow in silence. The stars, the moon, and the sun move in silence... In silence, He listens to us; in silence He speaks to our souls. In silence we are granted the privilege of listening to His voice. Silence of our eyes. Silence of our ears. Silence of our minds... In the silence of the heart, God will speak."

Saint Mother Theresa of Calcutta.

The Children's Chapel is open Monday to Friday, from 10am to 3pm, for personal prayer and meditation before the Blessed Sacrament in the Tabernacle. Also, we will continue to gather in the Church every Friday from 7pm to closing with benediction at 830pm.

Everyone is invited and welcome to stay as long as time allows.

SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading: The author of life you put to death, but God raised him from the dead; of this we are witnesses. (Acts :15) Psalm: Lord, let your face shine on us. (Ps 4) Or: Alleluia. Second Reading: He is expiation for our sins, and not for our sins only but for those of the whole world. (1 Jn 2:2) Gospel: "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day." (Lk 24:46).

THE YEAR OF EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

My Sacrifice and Yours

After the priest washes his hands, he extends his hands and rejoins them while invites the faithful: "Pray, brethren (brothers and sisters), that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father."

We are called to remember that the Mass is a Holy Sacrifice, as it makes present for all the faithful once again the offering of the one-time sacrifice that Christ offered to the Father on the Cross for us.

The priest says that it is his sacrifice because through his ordination he acts in persona Christi (the person of Christ) to bring forward this sacrifice that Christ offered himself. Through the priest Christ's sacrifice is made present.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church also explains, "The Eucharist is also the sacrifice of the Church. The Church which is the Body of Christ participates in the offering of her Head... The sacrifice of Christ becomes also the sacrifice of the members of his Body." (CCC 1368) That is why this sacrifice is also yours. In your own common priesthood which you have through baptism, you unite your life to the sacrifice of Christ. All the faithful unite themselves to His perfect offering of love to the Father.

The faithful then say, "May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands, for the praise and glory of His name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church." I highlight one more time to make it clear. We unite ourselves to the sacrifice which the priest makes present from His hands, the one sacrifice of Jesus Christ. Contemplate that every time you pray such words during the mass.

Marriage Help!
May 3-5, 2024

Not willing to let go of your marriage? Many couples continue to struggle in a marriage but are not willing to give up on each other. There is hope.

Retrouvaille is a program designed to help struggling marriages regain their health. It helps a husband and a wife rediscover or re-awaken the love, trust and commitment that originally brought them together.

For more information about an upcoming Retrouvaille Weekend program for couples, call 951-259-9474 or visit our website:

O.C.I.A.
 "Order of Christian Initiation for Adults"
 Interested in becoming Catholic
 O.C.I.A. is the process by which adults enter the Catholic Church.

If you or anyone you know is interested in becoming Catholic, completing Sacraments or learning more about the Catholic Faith, this is the process for you.

This is a spiritual journey, led by the Holy Spirit, which can lead to Full Initiation into the Catholic Church through Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist. It is also, a way to learn more about the Catholic Faith. One of the goals is to develop a personal relationship with God, accomplished through prayer, scripture and worship.

Everyone is welcome to join us on Tuesdays at 7pm in Barry Hall.

If you would like to be part of this Faith Journey to become Catholic, or to help facilitate the Journey, please contact Christine Davis at chris@saintmartinoftours.cc or 619.465.5334.

Would you find it helpful to have your offerings debited directly from your bank account as you probably do with other obligations? St. Martin of Tours offers electronic giving for those of you who wish to have contributions transferred electronically to the church's account. If you have plans to travel this summer, electronic giving gives you a convenient way to keep up with your intended offerings. We encourage you to look into our electronic giving program. It takes just a few minutes to set up a recurring giving plan. Simply go to our website: www.stmartinoftoursparish.org and locate the donation link and complete the electronic giving authorization form to get started. It's that easy!

Or you can also scan the QR code with your smartphone camera! It's the easiest & most secure way to give to our church and it's ministries!

Planning for a

Catholic Funeral...

By virtue of one's baptism, a Catholic is eligible for the funeral rites of the Church. While the Church recommends that the pious custom of burying the bodies of the dead be observed, cremation is permitted as long as it is in line with Catholic teaching.

The cremains should be treated with the same respect given to the body of the deceased and should be entombed or buried. The scattering of cremains on the ground or at sea, or keeping any portion of them for personal reasons is not the reverent final disposition that the Church directs.

If you would like additional information and/or need to plan a Funeral or Memorial Mass, please contact:
