ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

"We cannot find God in noise or agitation. Within nature: trees, flowers and grass grow in silence. The stars, the moon, and the sun move in silence... In silence, He listens to us; in silence He speaks to our souls. In silence we are granted the privilege of listening to His voice. Silence of our eyes. Silence of our ears. Silence of our minds... in the silence of the heart, God will speak."

Saint Mother Theresa of Calcutta.

The Children's Chapel is open Monday to Friday, from 10am to 3pm, for personal prayer and meditation before the Blessed Sacrament in the Tabernacle. Also, we will continue to gather in the Church every Friday from 7pm to closing with benediction at 830pm.

Everyone is invited and welcome to stay as long as time allows.

SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading: The circumcised believers who had accompanied Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit should have been poured out on the Gentiles also, for they could hear them speaking in tongues and glorifying God. (Acts 10:45-46)

Second Reading: Whoever is without love does not know God, for God is love. (1 Jn 4:8)

THE YEAR OF EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS:

The next small part that often gets overlooked is the prayer over the offerings. This prayer points us towards the upcoming Eucharistic prayer. If one pays attention to this part, one may notice key words such as: prayers, gifts, sacrifices, oblations. In true sincerity, the people along with the priest ask God to accept these gifts, this sacrifice, this oblation that we make to Him.

As one can see, these are words of transition that are leading us towards the climax of the mass. The prayers for this Sunday is this: "O God, who by the wonderful exchange effected in this sacrifice have made us partakers of the one supreme Godhead, grant, we pray, that, as we have come to know your truth, we may make it ours by a worthy way of life. Through Christ our Lord."

In this sacrifice we partake in the gifts God wants for us. That as we continue to live our lives we come to know the truth of our faith and to always be like God. I am not saying we are becoming God, but that we - in our journey of God- are supposed to be growing closer in union with our God and His will.

Through the sacrifice Jesus makes we are called and given the grace to lead a life of Holiness. How amazing is that?
