11th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use for it? It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants."- Mk 4:30-32b

June 16, 2024

Lord, it is good
to give thanks to you.
Psalm 92

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

"We cannot find God in noise or agitation. Within nature: trees, flowers and grass grow in silence. The stars, the moon, and the sun move in silence... In silence, He listens to us; in silence He speaks to our souls. In silence we are granted the privilege of listening to His voice. Silence of our eyes. Silence of our ears. Silence of our minds... in the silence of the heart, God will speak."

Saint Mother Theresa of Calcutta.

The Children's Chapel is open Monday to Friday, from 10am to 3pm, for personal prayer and meditation before the Blessed Sacrament in the Tabernacle. Also, we will continue to gather in the Church every Friday from 7pm to closing with benediction at 830pm.

Everyone is invited and welcome to stay as long as time allows.

THE YEAR OF EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

Eucharistic Prayer Background

As a reminder, although there are different Eucharistic prayers that may have different emphases, the main parts include the epiclesis, the institution narrative and Consecration, anamnesis, oblation, intercessions, and concluding doxology. But before we get into these "five dollar words," let's seek out what the Eucharistic Prayer is meant to express.

In our reading from scripture, one knows that Jesus "gave thanks" (1 Cor. 11:24; Lk 22:17) and "said a blessing" (Mt. 26:26; Mk 14:22) as they entered into the ritual meal of the Passover. In such a setting one should not be surprised that the Eucharistic prayer has its roots in Jewish prayers said at every meal. In such a meal, there was a prayer of blessing (barakah) as they took bread, saying "Blessed are you, Lord, our God, king of the universe, who has brought forth bread from heaven." Then there would be a longer prayer over a cup of wine when the meal was nearing the end. The prayer included (1) praise of God for his creation, (2) thanksgiving for his redemptive work in the past, and (3) supplication for the future. That sounds a little familiar doesn't it?

But the difference in such a pattern happens in His Institution of the Eucharist. In the Last Supper, He leaves us a memorial of his covenant. To not only recall the freeing of the Israelites from Egypt. But for us to recall our salvation and redemption with Christ away from sin. During the Eucharistic prayer, hear these simple parts prayed, and then we'll dive into the specific parts later.

Student Address presented by Catherine Kingston

"Today my fellow classmates and I have reached an important milestone in our lives! We are saying goodbye to familiar hallways and routines, inspirational staff, annual traditions, school Mass and close friends.

We have learned to be Catholic Christians who grow and share our faith. Whether it was through Mass, receiving sacraments, praying the Rosary as a class or celebrating holy days, we have been privileged to share our faith. As we grow in the world, we will need to be open and respect other people's thoughts and ideas while staying true to our own and what was learned here.

We learned how to be students that learn independently and collaboratively. We have also been taught that making mistakes is a part of the learning process. As we enter high school, we will undoubtedly make mistakes..hopefully not too big. But taking academic risks, being responsible and taking pride in our work are ways we know we can succeed further in our educational goals. We also learned how to be individuals who care for our community. One of the lessons I am personally going to take forward is acts of service. Actions speak louder than words. Some of the acts include making gift boxes for the Youth Group, gathering items of need for less privileged children and the homeless, decorating cookies for Noah's Home, participating in Pasta In Penance and raising almost $1,000 for Ukraine. We donated our time at Feeding San Diego. By simply bagging potatoes we helped make someone's day easier. I urge all of you to never under estimate how a simple act of kindness can change someone's day.

Our years here haven't always been easy. Clearly learning 5th grade through a worldwide pandemic was a challenge educationally, socially and emotionally. But we persevered and we are here stronger because of it. Speaking of strong, I am happy to leave St. Martin's with a three year consecutive championship in girls basketball. I hope when you see these trophies in the library it will remind you of our class's contributions.

This last year has flown by. From creating new memories with our Little Friends, hilarious times at the lunch tables, or the first Shakespearean play in SMA history, we have learned so much.

I would like to thank all the teachers who have given their time and energy tirelessly. The list is endless of people who influenced us. But, we would not be here today without you."

[Edited for space.]

Congratulations Class of 2024!
