Lord, let us see your kindness and

(Psalm 85)

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

"We cannot find God in noise or agitation. Within nature: trees, flowers and grass grow in silence. The stars, the moon, and the sun move in silence... In silence, He listens to us; in silence He speaks to our souls. In silence we are granted the privilege of listening to His voice. Silence of our eyes. Silence of our ears. Silence of our minds... in the silence of the heart, God will speak."

Saint Mother Theresa of Calcutta.

The Children's Chapel is open Monday to Friday, from 10am to 3pm, for personal prayer and meditation before the Blessed Sacrament in the Tabernacle. Also, we will continue to gather in the Church every Friday from 7pm to closing with benediction at 830pm.

Everyone is invited and welcome to stay as long as time allows.

THE YEAR OF EUCCHARISTIC REVIVAL

Transubstantiation

What is happening at the moment of consecration? The way in which the bread and wine becomes the body and blood of Christ is called transubstantiation. This may sound like a big, fancy word, but how does it help bring us to understand what is happening?

How can we come to understand this? Maybe we can find clues in another word -transform. What does it mean to transform? If one did a quick google search, one would see the definition: "to make a thorough or dramatic change in the form, appearance, or character of." So in transformations, you can see something outwardly change.

The miracle that happens during Mass is transubstantiation, that is, the substance of the matter is changed. Although the physical and visible appearance we see is still bread and wine, we know in faith that through the words of Jesus it becomes his Body and Blood in substance.

We believe that the whole Christ is present in the consecrated host and chalice, simply because He said it, "This is my Body" and "This is my Blood."

We also know this to be true from the Early Church Fathers who preached and believed such things. Saint Irenaeus of Lyons says in A.D. 189: "If the Lord were from other than the Father, how could he rightly take bread, which is of the same creation as our own, and confess it to be his body and affirm that the mixture in the cup is his blood?"

In a deeper understanding of what happens at this moment at Mass, may we see with the eyes of faith what Jesus wants us to see, and may that, get us ready to receive Him fully.

Saint of the week

St. Norbert of Xanten (c. 1075-1134) after a violent conversion experience, was ordained and became an itinerant preacher who founded the Norbertine order. He preached against heresies denying the Blessed Sacrament, which earned him the title "Apostle of the Blessed Sacrament."

Prayer for Truth

Dear Jesus,
As I set out in your name, be with me on every step.
I don't know where you will lead, but I trust that you will be with me and that, for me, that will be enough.
Amen.

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Jesus sends his disciples into the world with no money or provisions — just as he sends us. But make no mistake — he has given us everything we need: the strength that comes from faith in Christ, and the will to do what God has asked. Let's get to work.

Dr. Yvette Nishikawa graduated from St. Martin Academy in 1984 after attending Grades 7 & 8 under the school leadership of Sister Barbara, Father Sam Cordeleoni and classroom instruction of Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Nickoli. She attended the Academy of Our Lady of Peace for a few years but ended up graduating from high school in Colorado before returning to Southern California for college at San Diego State University. Yvette then pursued graduate work at Cal State Long Beach for a master's degree and the University of LaVerne for a doctorate in Organizational Leadership.

She worked in various positions in school districts in Santa Ana, Mammoth Lakes, and Sacramento but eventually moved to the private sector- working first with a literacy company before joining BrainPOP, an EdTech platform recently acquired by Kirkbi- the parent company of LEGO.

Yvette has four children, all between the ages of 17-21 and lives with her husband and two dogs in Bend, Oregon. She visits San Diego frequently and plans to reside part time in Southern California to escape cold Oregon winters. In her spare time, she loves to hike and exercise, travel, cook, and read. She considers her time at St. Martin Academy to have been instrumental in shaping her current work in Education and loves that some friendships from that season of life have continued into the present day.
